Rules and regulations

1. The concerto prize orchestra group prize is open to all instrumentalists at YMC and students of YMC teachers. Candidates can enter in an older age category or more advanced orchestra category if they wish, however only one category can be entered on the same instrument. More than one category can be entered on different instruments (half the entrance fee is due for the second instrument).
2. Contestants should perform one piece from the repertoire list with piano accompaniment. All performers should play from memory except for performances of double concertos. If you choose not to play from memory you can still take part and receive adjudication, but will not be eligible for the first prize.
3. Contestants can either bring their own accompanist or can play with one of the accompanists recommended by YMC. Students on assisted places will receive up to £50 towards pianist's fees per child. A list with names and contact details is available.
4. Prize winners of each age group and instrumental section must be available for rehearsal with orchestra on Saturday 11th May 1.00-3.30 pm and concert at 5.30pm both at the Hampstead Garden Suburb Free Church.
5. At the discretion of the judges, performances may be interrupted or subjected to time restrictions.
6. Parents, teachers, and friends are invited and encouraged to attend.
7. The decision of the judges is final, and the judges reserve the right not to award any level of the prizes.
8. All entries and the non refundable application fee of £18 must be with the YMC no later than 13th January 2018. Students can enter on more than one instrument and only need to pay one entry fee. No late entries will be accepted.
9. YMC reserves the right to cancel a class if less than two players have applied (if this arises the fee will be refunded).
10. Please either send completed applications to: Marina Solarek, 46 Cranhurst Road, London NW2 4LP or hand it to the desk at YMC in Bigwood House NW11 7BD.
11. Assisted places will receive a contribution from YMC of up to £50 towards their pianist's fees for each child upon presentation of receipt.
